CIVIL SOCIETY ORGANIZATIONS (CSO) CONFERENCE: Papel ng Civil Society Organizations sa Kaunlaran ng Pamayanan

AUGUST 18, 2025 | City of Malolos Evacuation Center

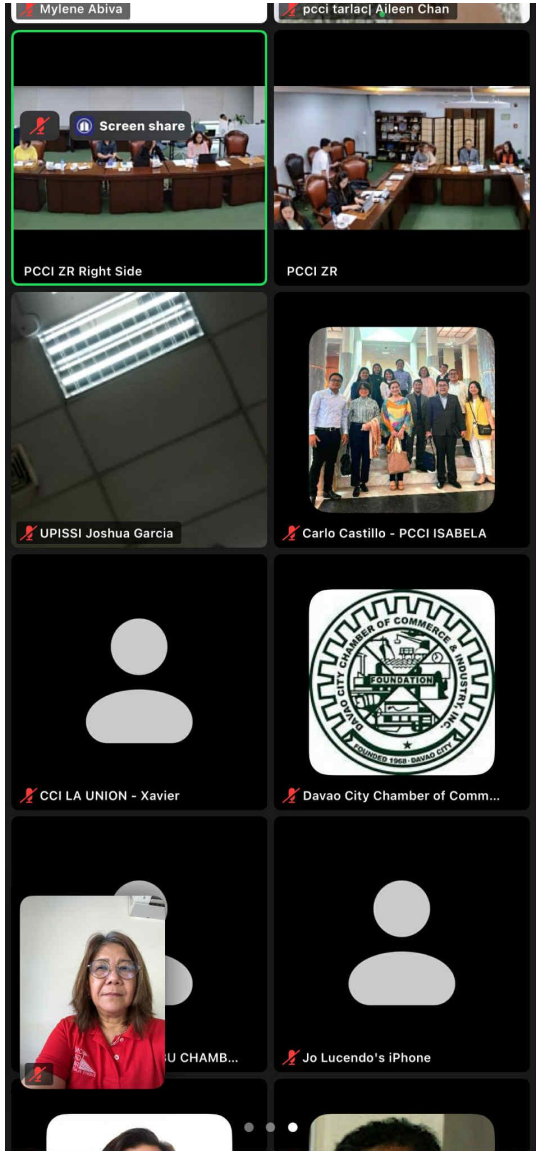

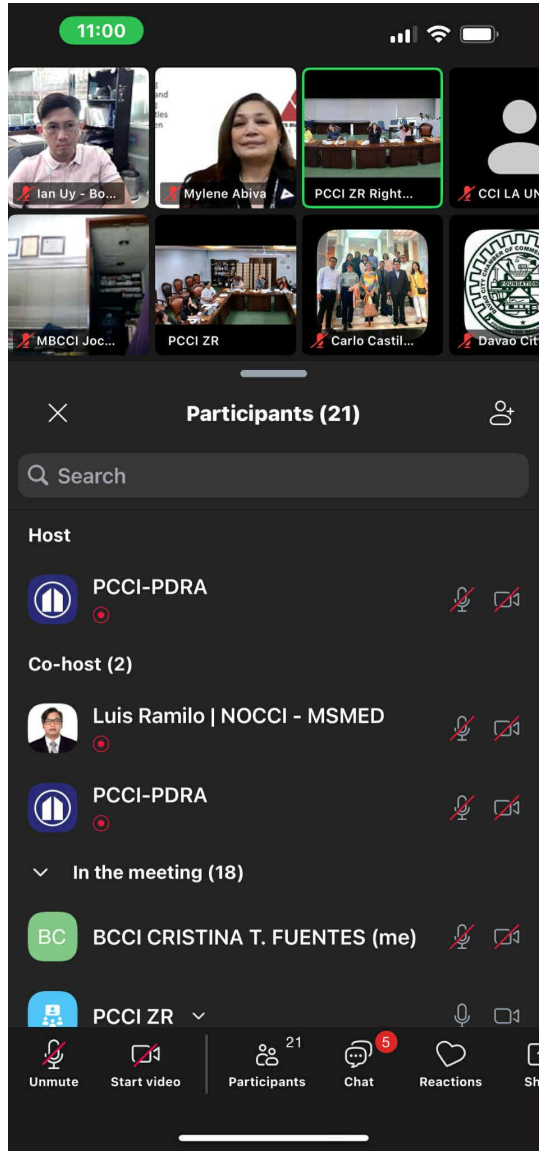

Trustee Carmen Uychoco attended the CSO Conference organized by the City Government of Malolos on August 18, 2025, at the City of Malolos Evacuation Center. The activity aimed to orient civil society organizations on the relevance of participatory governance, the guidelines for LGU accreditation, and the reconstitution of Local Special Bodies (LSBs). It also discussed CSO participation under RA 7160 and encouraged the formation of a local CSO network. The event brought together various CSOs and representatives from local government units to discuss the vital role of civil society in promoting inclusive and sustainable community development. The conference emphasized the importance of CSOs as active partners and watchdogs in governance, particularly in planning, implementation, and monitoring of local programs and projects. Discussions focused on how CSOs serve as the voice of marginalized sectors—women, youth, farmers, fisherfolk, and faith-based groups—and how their participation in Local Development Councils (LDCs) ensures that government initiatives reflect the real needs of the people. The event highlighted the need for genuine collaboration between CSOs and LGUs, reinforcing the idea that development should be a collective effort.
