PCCI 2ND GENENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING / ENERGY SUMMIT 2026

MAY 12, 2026 | New World Hotel, Makati City

On May 12, 2026, the Philippine Chamber of Commerce and Industry (PCCI) held its 2nd General Membership Meeting and Energy Summit 2026 at the New World Makati Hotel with the theme, "Securing the Philippines' Energy Future: Strategy for Energy Resource Security in a Disrupted World." The summit highlighted the critical need to strengthen the country's energy security through the development of indigenous energy resources, the acceleration of renewable energy initiatives, and the creation of a more enabling regulatory and investment environment to ensure a stable, reliable, and sustainable energy supply.

Representing the Bulacan Chamber of Commerce and Industry (BCCI), Vice President for Membership Benjamin M. Eusebio, together with his wife, Ms. Faye Angeles-Eusebio, attended the event. The summit provided valuable insights on current energy challenges and opportunities, underscoring the important role of the private sector in advancing policies and investments that contribute to the country's long-term energy resilience and sustainability.

During the event, Mr. Eusebio, in his capacity as Director of Big Ben Builders, was formally inducted as a new member of the PCCI, marking another milestone in his continued engagement with the national business community.

COURTESY CALL TO THE DTI PROVINCIAL DIRECTOR

MAY 12, 2026 | DTI Bulacan Provincial Office

On May 12, 2026, representatives of the Bulacan Chamber of Commerce and Industry (BCCI), namely Vice Chair Josephine M. Santos, Vice President for MSME Development Lilibeth M. Alcaraz, Executive Director Ruth C. Jimenez, and Membership and Business Development Officer Jonielene G. Mangalonzo, paid a courtesy call to the Department of Trade and Industry (DTI) – Bulacan Provincial Office. They were welcomed by Provincial Director Atty. Coco Chanel Garcia-Yap, together with Chief Trade-Industry Development Specialist Maria Cristina V. Valenzuela and Senior Trade-Industry Development Specialist Lota M. Yasa.

The visit served as an opportunity to formally congratulate Provincial Director Yap on her leadership and to reaffirm BCCI's commitment to strengthening its longstanding partnership with DTI in promoting business development and economic growth in the province. Discussions centered on potential collaborative initiatives aimed at supporting micro, small, and medium enterprises (MSMEs), including preparations for the upcoming Bulacan Food Fair and Exposition (BUFFEX) 2026.

As a significant outcome of the meeting, Provincial Director Yap expressed DTI Bulacan's support for BUFFEX 2026 by committing the subsidy of ten (10) exhibit booths for participating MSMEs, further strengthening efforts to provide market access and business opportunities for local entrepreneurs.

BUSINESS CONSULTATION OF DIAZ FOOD PRODUCTS

MAY 20, 2026 | BCCI Office, Hiyas ng Bulacan Convention Center, Provincial Capitol Compound, City of Malolos, Bulacan

A business consultancy session was conducted at the BCCI Office with the owner of Diaz Food Products, who sought guidance regarding a complaint filed by their sole employee with the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE). During the consultation, the owner presented the notice of complaint and requested assistance in understanding the matter and the appropriate course of action.

The owner expressed concern over the complaint and shared the challenges of operating a small business while complying with labor and regulatory requirements. It was emphasized that while employers may place a high level of trust in their employees, proper documentation, clear employment policies, and compliance with labor standards remain essential in preventing and addressing disputes.

The client was advised to coordinate directly with DOLE, prepare all relevant records and supporting documents, and comply with applicable labor regulations and mandatory requirements. It was explained that proper documentation would be important in supporting the company's position and addressing any allegations that may not accurately reflect the circumstances. The owner acknowledged the importance of compliance and expressed willingness to undertake the necessary steps to ensure continued adherence to labor laws and regulations.
